PEGASUS
INSTITUTE

Global Health, Peace, Environmental Sustainability

We aim to advance awareness and understanding of Global Health issues, locally and internationally framed through a lens of peace and sustainability.

Our Unique Approach

Mission: To promote equity, justice and global health in its nexus with peace and environmental sustainability through interactive fora to share research, education, field experiences, advocacy and policy.

- ✓ Interlinkages between Global health, peace and sustainability
- ✓ Interdisciplinary, multisectoral, interconnected approach
- ✓ Multilingual, international networks (English, French, and Spanish)
- ✓ Engagement with experienced professionals, academics, students and young professionals as well as those with lived experience

Meet the Team

Activities and Projects

PEGASUS Institute focuses on improving health equity for globally and locally marginalized populations through the conception of academic courses, mentorship activities, and tools to support knowledge mobilization while placing the various dimensions of human security at the centre of the conversation.

We strive to produce tangible outputs such as our Green Office Toolkit in collaboration with the Ontario College of Family Physicians and the Canadian Coalition for Green Healthcare in addition to webinars, mentorship programs, articles and much more!

Research Projects

- Developing and Testing New Approaches to Peace Professionalism-SSHRC Partnership Development Grant 2023-2025 in Development
- Indigenous-Led Policing and Mental Health
- Environmental Toxins and the Health of Racialized and Equity Deserving Populations
- Gender Based Violence: Identifying Gaps in Data Collection, Programming and Service Delivery and Sharing Best Practices within the Context of COVID-19

Capacity Building for Refugee Health Professionals (Canadian Medical Foundation)

This program provides education and training to assist International Educated Health Professionals to access the resources and pathways to integrate themselves into the Canadian healthcare system. PEGASUS Institute's support system includes a website providing resources for suitable pathways for employment in Canada, a mentorship program, and in-person events such as the pre-conference symposium at the North American Refugee Health Conference in July 2023
